Development linked to 12,000 jobs

Local legislators sponsor plan for enterprise zone for 2,700-acre site

SPRINGFIELD — Pieces are falling into place for what some local officials are calling "the largest industrial development in the history of Madison County."

Four local state legislators have sponsored a bipartisan bill in the Illinois House of Representatives to authorize a 2,700-acre enterprise zone just north of Pontoon Beach.

The massive enterprise zone would be created by the Southwestern Illinois Development Authority and would provide tax benefits for industrial tenants.

"The enterprise zone that this creates is going to attract business and it's going to create jobs," said state Rep. Steve Davis, D-Bethalto, one of the bill's sponsors, who characterized the proposed industrial development as the county's largest if it becomes reality.

"Right now, we are looking at the possibility of 12,000 new jobs," he said.

Davis qualified his comments by saying that only a few of the anticipated tenants are known at this time. He said it could be more than a decade before thousands of jobs are created.

Davis is joined in sponsoring the bill by three other local state representatives: Thomas Holbrook, D-Bellefonte, Ron Stephens, R-Troy, and Glenn Bradford, D-Glen Carbon.

In another significant move, developer Rodney Thomas of Thomas Development in St. Charles, Mo., has requested a zoning variance on a parcel of property in the enterprise zone along Illinois Route 111.

Thomas Development has an option to buy property in the area and has been working with the Madison County Board and other local government entities to line up tax abatements.

"We're going to build an industrial park," Thomas said Thursday. "We're going to be ready to have tenants move in. That's all I can say at this point."

Thomas refused to identify any of

Senior police academy proposed

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

Paul Ray Bowler, candidate for mayor in Granite City, announced Friday his plan to organize a senior citizen police academy.

"Our senior citizens are ready, willing and able to make our streets safer," Bowler said, adding that he does not expect to promote badge-carrying, gun-toting grandmothers.

"All we need to do this is give them the educational resources and training to identify the criminal element and contact the police department."

"Many cities throughout Illinois have been aggressive in educating senior citizens on how to help fight crime," Bowler said. "For years, most of the education effort went into youth programs."

"I am not minimizing outstanding programs like DARE, but I know that our senior citizens

Cocaine, cash, guns discovered in home

By Bob Slate

Granite City police arrested a 41-year-old male resident of a quiet city subdivision Thursday morning after finding more than two pounds of uncut cocaine, nearly $35,000 in cash and an arsenal of weapons.

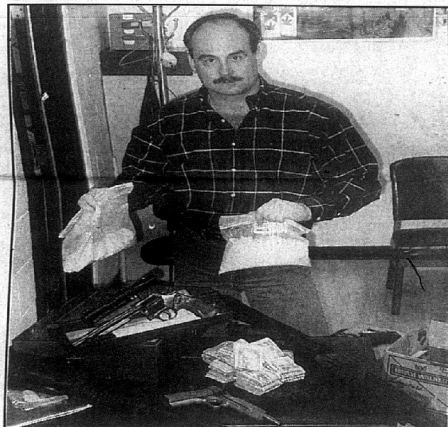

Kevin G. Kingsley, of 25 Devon Hill Lane, was charged with unlawful possession of a controlled substance with the intent to sell it and unlawful use of weapons in a felony warrant issued Friday.

Madison County Circuit Judge Charles Romani set bond at $250,000, but in an unusual move also ordered that the entire amount must be posted before Kingsley can be released. Only 10 percent of the bond amount is required in almost all felony cases in the county.

"This is the Granite City police department's largest cocaine and cash seizure in history," Police Chief Dave Ruebhausen said. "We're actively investigating the source of the cocaine and other agencies, including the (U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration), have been notified."

After obtaining permission from Kingsley to search the home at about 11:20 a.m.

Thursday, Granite City police officers discovered 933 grams of cocaine with a street value of at least $95,300 inside a locked red tool box, undercover officers said. They said the cocaine is "uncut" — meaning no other substance has been added to it to dilute it.

Police also confiscated nine long guns and 11 handguns, thousands of rounds of ammunition and $34,660 in cash from the home.

Reward offered in hit and run

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

A Granite City man is offering a $500 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of a driver and passenger who struck his son with the door of a pickup truck Wednesday and then left the scene.

Jerry Jackson said Thursday he will gladly give the reward to find out who struck David Merchant, 15, with the door of a pickup truck at about 3:50 p.m. Wednesday.

"He was walking along and the truck drove up next to him, the passenger opened the door and hit him with it," Jackson said.

Merchant was walking south on the sidewalk on the east side of the 2800 block of Nameoki Road, near Faith Avenue, when the passenger door of the north-bound pickup truck opened and struck Merchant in the face and chest, according to a police report.

Others who had been walking with Merchant were unable to get a complete license number on the truck, Jackson said.

The truck, a black 1980s model GMC or Chevrolet pickup with a silver stripe, was driven by a man with long hair in his 20s, witnesses said. The passenger in the truck was described similarly, but with a goatee.

Germania case guilty plea wins applause

A guilty plea by a key officer in the former Germania-Bank may boost the chances of bank note holders to recover $8.1 million lost in the defunct bank, an attorney for customers said Thursday.

Steven Gardner, 48, former president of the Alton-based Germania, pleaded guilty

Wednesday in U.S. District Court in St. Louis to charges of conspiring to defraud investors in the sale of uninsured, risky capital notes.

Gardner agreed to cooperate with prosecutors in the April trial of two other bank officials, former president Edward Morris and former board chairman Joseph Mason. An attorney for 600 Germania note holders hailed Gardner's guilty plea as a victory for customers who are trying to recover their shares of $8.1 million lost in the notes. "Customers lost their life savings in the notes because of the scheme by Germania officers," attorney Frank Duda said.

Germania sold $10 million in risky capital notes, called "schnotes," in a high-pressure sales campaign to save the ailing bank in 1987.

Gardner's guilty plea is strong evidence that note holders in Alton, Wood River, and throughout Illinois and Missouri were victims of fraud by Germania management, Duda said.

U.S. District Judge Paul Riley in East St. Louis ruled Sept. 20 that unlicensed sales people in Alton and other Germania branches illegally sold millions of dollars in uninsured notes. Riley ordered the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. to pay $8.1 million to note holders after a seven-year court battle by Duda and Wood River attorney Rod Pitts.

Duda and Pitts are battling the FDIC in the 7th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago to claim the $8.1 million for note holders.

Gardner's guilty plea will boost the chances of the note holders to recover the money from the FDIC in the appeals court, said Duda, who filed the original lawsuit in 1990.

the prospective tenants. He said he is busy lining up agreements to run utilities to the area, but nothing is finalized yet.

Last month, tax abatements were granted by the Madison County Board and the Granite City School District at Thomas Development's request for a 69-acre parcel in the southwest corner of Route 11 and Old Post Road. At that time, sources said Dial Corp. of Arizona would be the tenant for the proposed development. A spokesman for Dial said Thursday that no decision about the company's plans had been made.

The resolution to authorize the abatement, stated that a 1 million-square-foot warehouse may be built there, employing 400 people.

Neither Thomas Development nor the county would name the interested corporation.

County Board Chairman Rudy Papa confirmed Thursday that "what's transpiring looks promising."

"I am tickled pink that the Legislature is considering an enterprise zone because that tells me that there must be some things popping in that area for economic development," Papa said.

Davis compared the scope of the proposed development area to Earth City in west St. Louis County.

Gov. Jim Edgar has indicated his support for an enterprise zone in the area.

The request for the zoning variance by Thomas is scheduled to be heard before the Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals at approximately 12:20 p.m., March 11. The board conducts on-site reviews and then meets back at the Administration Building in Edwardsville.

According to the request, Thomas wants to build just one parking space for each 8,000 square feet of warehouse space. The ordinance normally requires one space per 1,000 square feet.

A union representative to Tuesday thanked members of the Pontoon Beach Board of Trustees for their support in withholding economic incentives from a developer until union workers were given a "fair shot" at building a Denny's restaurant.

"We thank the city fathers and city officials for trying to get Pontoon Beach involved in the building of Denny's," said Tad Kicielski, executive secretary-treasurer of the Southwestern Illinois Building and Construction Trades Council.

The restaurant, which is being built at Timberlake Square, is financed by developer Bill Warren of United Aircraft Services of California.

The project superintendent is Vince Marie, also of California, who has given plumbing and concrete work to local contractors. The plumbing work went to a union contractor, Amco Mechanical of Granite City. The footings, concrete work and framing was awarded to Jamie Wilkinson, a non-union company from Glen Carbon.

Kicielski first spoke on behalf of Pontoon Beach union residents two weeks ago, saying that economically it would be better for the village if union residents were allowed to build the restaurant.

"Construction dollars turn over many times within the community," Kicielski told the board. "People in your area that do construction are union."

"To do the project, anyone non-union will have to be shipped in," he said. "If it's not union, you're losing a lot of money in your community."

At that time, all board members voted in favor of a resolution that economically it would be better for the village if union residents were allowed to build the restaurant.

A union representative to Tuesday thanked members of the Pontoon Beach Board of Trustees for their support in withholding economic incentives from a developer until union workers were given a "fair shot" at building a Denny's restaurant.

"We thank the city fathers and city officials for trying to get Pontoon Beach involved in the building of Denny's," said Tad Kicielski, executive secretary-treasurer of the Southwestern Illinois Building and Construction Trades Council.

The restaurant, which is being built at Timberlake Square, is financed by developer Bill Warren of United Aircraft Services of California.

The project superintendent is Vince Marie, also of California, who has given plumbing and concrete work to local contractors. The plumbing work went to a union contractor, Amco Mechanical of Granite City. The footings, concrete work and framing was awarded to Jamie Wilkinson, a non-union company from Glen Carbon.

Kicielski first spoke on behalf of Pontoon Beach union residents two weeks ago, saying that economically it would be better for the village if union residents were allowed to build the restaurant.

"Construction dollars turn over many times within the community," Kicielski told the board. "People in your area that do construction are union."

"To do the project, anyone non-union will have to be shipped in," he said. "If it's not union, you're losing a lot of money in your community."

At that time, all board members voted in favor of a resolution that economically it would be better for the village if union residents were allowed to build the restaurant.

Restrictions established for hotel, strip mall

GLEN CARBON — Neighbors helped write special restrictions for a proposed hotel and strip mall going up at the foot of Sunset Hill.

The Village Board unanimously approved the final plat for Sunset Hills Terrace on Tuesday, but not before incorporating additional restrictions creating a buffer zone, natural screening and bluff protection for neighbors in Glenwood Estates.

About 30 residents attended the board meeting after developers Pete Fields and brothers Bob and Mike Bruegge worked out the agreement with the subdivision association.

The special agreement guarantees a 100-foot buffer zone, evergreen screening from all homes and a height limit on the bluff where developers plan an Amerihost hotel with an in-ground swimming pool and meeting rooms. A full-service restaurant and large furniture store are planned for an adjacent strip mall at the back of the 34-acre property at the corner of Illinois Route 157 and Interstate 270.

Barbara Collin of the 100 block of Glenwood Drive said she was concerned that the 100-foot buffer was not enough. She also complained of increased runoff and yard washout since contractors began developing the site.

"I am concerned about further development of property on the bluff and at what price the changes will take place," Collin said.

One resident said he wanted the area to remain the same and preferred keeping the urban sprawl elsewhere.

Mayor Ron Foster said the plans had gone through several reviews by village planners, who made special efforts to keep the neighbors informed.

Bob Bruegge said the developers gave the homeowners everything they asked for on the entire site. He voluntarily left the power to change the agreement with village officials.

"This will be a quality development for the community," he said, adding that the buffer zone and erosion plans will be implemented as the property develops. A certified bluff height will be added to the agreement.

Developers will have a number of additional hoops to jump through before building can begin. City officials also agreed to notify the association as future decisions come before village committees.

The 60-room, masonry hotel in the first phase was likened to a Drury Inn, with rooms averaging $52 a night and no parking for trucks.

Developers also plan to work with state highway officials to help solve complaints that may come from road work, officials said.

In other business, the Village Board approved the final plat with minor changes for North Bay Villas, a development of 20 duplexes, with community and self-storage facilities on 11.3 acres at Cougar Drive and Bay Hill Boulevard.

Mentors offer children caring adults

By Jason Scales
Correspondent

Jerry and Sue Schlichter live, work and raise their children in St. Louis. Jerry, a trial lawyer, and Sue, who has a background in social work, can easily provide their three boys with opportunities to succeed in life. But that does not stop the Schlichters from trying to make an impact on the lives of children who may be struggling with drugs, gangs, poverty or fragmented families.

So a year and a half ago the couple decided to organize Mentor St. Louis, a program that matches volunteer mentors with kindergartners.

There currently are about 600 mentors involved in the lives of 800 students at Clark, Dunbar, Eliot, Farragut, Sherman and Simmons elementary schools.

Mentors include members of local churches and temples, police officers and lawyers.

Mentors meet with students in their classrooms at least once a month in sessions that support lessons teachers are giving. Mentors also go on field trips with their students and attend other activities such as summer picnics.

The goal of the program is to provide students additional caring adults, Sue said.

"One person can make all the difference in a kid's life," Jerry said. "With kids in trouble, a little attention goes a long way."

Jerry and Sue Schlichter founded the Mentor St. Louis program, which matches volunteer mentors with kindergartners in St. Louis schools.

There are other mentoring programs in city schools, but Mentor St. Louis is the first that concentrates on starting the process with kindergartners. The idea is a mentor-student relationship will be maintained as a student advances through grades.

Mentor St. Louis also has the backing of the St. Louis Sports Commission's Dreams For Youth program, which allows local youths, who otherwise would not be able to attend sporting events, clinics and other attractions.

The Schlichters will receive a humanitarian award March 8 for their work in creating the mentoring program. The award will be presented at 9:30 a.m. at St. Louis University's Busch Center, 200 N. Grand Blvd.

Dreams for Youth is also bringing William Gates, who aspired to play professional basketball and whose life is illustrated in the 1995 film "Hoop Dreams," to St. Louis to talk with local teenagers about making wise choices.

He will be in town March 5 through 8. For more information, call Mary Elizabeth Grimes, with the sports commission, at 922-0689.

The goal now for Mentor St. Louis is to expand it significantly to reach more students, Jerry said. And expansion is contingent on community support.

The nonprofit organization is now in the middle of its second year.

"We now have a viable, credible program," Jerry said. "We will be going to the community for financial support" and volunteers to be additional mentors.

For more information on Mentor St. Louis, call 361-8904 or write to: 275 Union Blvd., Suite 115, St. Louis, Mo. 63108.

Support groups have been in existence for many years. They can become a vital and positive influence in the lives of both patients and those who care about them. By providing information about their disease and how to live with it, support group members can create a better working partnership between patient and physician.

Memorial believes that support groups provide an opportunity for patients, along with their families and friends to discuss uncertainties and learn to place them in perspective. Better than any other technique, talking in a support group with people who share common problems, helps them understand that they are not alone.

The following is information about Memorial-sponsored support groups. For more information about these groups, call the Community Relations Department at 257-5649.

DIABETES
A mutual support group comprised of people with diabetes, their families and people who have had their lives affected by diabetes. Meetings are held on the fourth Monday of every month from 9 to 11 a.m. in the hospital auditorium.

FIBROMYALGIA SYNDROME
This support group is for people with fibromyalgia syndrome (FMS) and their families. FMS is considered to be a widespread musculoskeletal pain and fatigue disorder for which the cause is still unknown. Meetings are held on the third Tuesday of each month from 7 to 9 p.m. in the auditorium.

HOPE
Hospital Oncology Patient and Family Education was formed to assist cancer patients, former cancer patients and people who have their lives affected by cancer. The HOPE group meets the last Thursday of each month at 1 p.m. in the auditorium.

MENDED HEARTS, INC. - BELLEVILLE CHAPTER
Mended Hearts is a volunteer organization consisting of people who have heart disease, their families, medical professionals and other interested people. Additionally, Mended Hearts members form a support group for one another, contributing emotional backing to recovering patients and their families. For more information, call Memorial's Social Service Department at 257-5420.

NU-VOICE
Conducted in cooperation with American Cancer Society, the Nur-Voice Club is for laryngecto-mies - people who have had their voice boxes (larynxes) removed. Family members and friends are encouraged to attend. For more information about meeting dates and times, call the Speech Pathology Department at 257-5255.

PULMONARY REHABILITATION
A group for people with diseases of the lung and their families. Individuals with chronic lung disease and their families learn about the disease, as well as share ideas and solutions to their problems. Meetings are held on the last Wednesday of the month (except June - August) at 1:30 p.m. in the auditorium.

YOUNG ADULT CANCER
This mutual support group was formed for young adults with cancer and their significant others who are affected by the disease. Meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of every month at 7 p.m. in the auditorium.

SIUE elated over building prospects

SIUE officials are elated about passage of a bill by the Illinois House authorizing the sale of $610 million in state bonds, virtually ensuring that the long-awaited engineering building for the Edwardsville campus will become a reality.

"This is really wonderful news. The university has been waiting for this for a long time," SIUE spokesman Sam Smith said.

Passage of the bills broke a partisan gridlock of two years that blocked sorely needed funding for public works improvements at prisons, state universities and other public facilities.

Last week, legislative leaders and Gov. Jim Edgar agreed to sell the bonds for the package of improvement projects after the state's bond rating improved.

Southern Illinois University campuses stand to receive $44.7 million over two years, including $21.5 million for the new engineering building in Edwardsville.

"This is good news to a lot of people in Southern Illinois. It will move us forward with the money to build the engineering buildings," said a jubilant SIUE President Ted Sanders.

University officials' hopes of obtaining the funding have been dashed in the past couple of years. Although the money was budgeted for the work, the funding for the projects continued to be held up.

"There's a sense of celebration here. We reached a point where we almost thought it never was going to happen. It is such a relief," Sanders said.

SIUE Chancellor Nancy Beck also was thrilled with news of the House action.

"We are all delighted. We waited three years to get the bond authorization," — From The Telegraph

Here are some
Pre-Spring Tips
 from the experts at FRANK'S
NURSERY & CRAFTS

Where Beautiful Things Begin

Welcome to March! This is the month that has nearly everything. It can bring balmy spring-like days or a 30-degree day with two inches of snow. But nonetheless, for the most part, March signals the real beginning of the serious outdoor work.

If you plan on roto-tilling, give the soil a test before renting the machine. Pick up a clump of garden soil and gently squeeze it in your hand. If it crumbles apart when you open your hand, it is ready for cultivation. If it's moist and stays packed together in a clump, it's not ready. Wait until it dries sufficiently before tilling.

Never operated a power tiller before? At first it can be a harrowing experience! A roto-tiller wants to dig in and get going, seemingly with a mind of its own. But it's not that tough. A few minutes of getting used to it will have you tilling with the best of them.

As your spring-flowering bulbs begin to sprout, gently remove any deep winter mulches over bulb beds. Pay close attention to those planted near south and west sides of your home, since they'll most likely sprout first, due to the warmer ground temperatures.

Light mulches can be left in place as long as they aren't threatening to damage emerging shoots. Once winter has had its final say and has bid us adieu, the mulches can be removed.

If you haven't prepared your garden tools yet, do so as soon as possible, so they'll be ready when you are.

Have you checked your lawn furniture? Perhaps some could stand a coat of paint or two. Maybe some bolts need tightening. After all, you don't want to lie down in that nice relaxing chaise on the first day and have it buckle and slowly collapse beneath you. Speaking of chaises, here's a "bet you didn't know."

Technically, that ever-popular piece of furniture isn't called a "lounge." It's a chaise! "lounge." But doesn't the word "lounge" sound and fit better?

If you've been procrastinating, waiting for the cold weather to break, March offers the opportunity you and/or your spouse have been waiting for. The outdoor Christmas lights can finally be taken down!

Don't neglect the wild birds. If you've been feeding them throughout the winter, they're depending on you, so don't disappoint them. And besides, the gentle sounds of nearby birds can captivate and proclaim spring's arrival like nothing else.

If you aren't actively feeding wild birds, why not start? Frank's carries feeders of nearly every size and style, along with nutritious foods wild birds crave.

Examine your trellises. Winter may have caused some unseen damage. If anything's beyond repair, Frank's carries replacements.

There's plenty of gardening activity in the weeks ahead, so be sure to watch for our tips. Coming up are pruning tips that'll definitely be of interest. We'll describe the tools available and what they should be used for. Also, we'll tell you how to improve your soil, which will allow your plants to get off to their best possible start.

Horoscope

Sunday, March 2
With the sun, Mercury and Venus all nestled into Pisces, your influence is strong, so rely on your sense of intuition. Now is the time to settle scores and tie up loose ends.

The moon is in Sagittarius, encouraging you to reach into the depths of your emotions with fire-sign energy. The water-sign influence encourages you to "go with the flow."
ARIES (March 21-April 19).

Power is yours — it's right at hand. Renew ideals, and vow to help others. Health resolutions only work if they are reasonable and include several baby steps. Taurus and Sagittarius are especially receptive in romance.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). A loved one flies in from a distance — surprise! Take a chance on romance, conditional or not. You'll love the recognition from family and pals for your unselfish efforts. Comfort a loved one with your cooking.
GEMINI (May 21-June 21). Rest up — a big job is assigned to you next week. You'll find something of value while cleaning. No matter how dreary it seems, give a routine your best effort. Details count. Wednesday is a great day to start a big plan.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Travel is favored, so be prepared for new adventures. Friends show that they still care. You'll find bargains, but it's best not to spend at all. Have patience with a teen — learning and change only occur with time.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Continue to complete and tie up loose ends. Tomorrow is a favorable day to reach a new understanding in an emotional relationship. A symbol of your prosperity will appear. You need encouragement, so why not give it to yourself?

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (March 2). Welcome to the brightest year you've had in a long time. Job incentives this month will keep you financially secure, but it's best to save. Balance time between your family and love life for a happy medium in May. Visit new places in June. Your lover may persuade you to settle down in August. A September relationship shows you the path to profound happiness. VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Though you have mixed views about the goodness of humanity, your social light burns bright. Give yourself a mental vacation — light reading sounds good. Tomorrow, news of a job prospect makes you believe in your future.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). A sizzling romance begins with one glance. Bide time in home matters. You can make small repairs instead of calling a specialist. Married couples may wrestle for the leadership position.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21).

Start home and family projects that are long overdue. Romance lights up — travel, parties and sports events are all winners. Pursue excellence, even if what you are doing is only for recreation. Save time for intimacy.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). A new cycle of communication and fun has started. Make copies of your resume, and do your groundwork to get a head start for the job hunt tomorrow. Outline personal health and fitness goals, and stick to them.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Love is exciting, but avoid infatuation. A Gemini challenges you to new heights. Spend time alone bookkeeping. Doing other solitary duties will calm and clear your mind for decision-making later.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19). Before leaving a current situation, examine what has kept you there for so long. You must know what you hold valuable in order to take it with you into the next step. Long-term values are key factors in decision making.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). A bold step into the unknown provides the adventure you've been longing for. A new world will open up to you. You may be treated to lunch by an old friend.

Trojans fend off Devils, capture regional title

By Scott Marion
Staff writer

For the Madison Trojans, any win over Venice is special. But Friday's 68-58 victory over the Red Devils was even more enjoyable than usual.

The win gave Madison the championship of the Wesclin Class A Regional. The Trojans (22-6) will play Greenville at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the semifinals of the Vandavia Sectional.

It was the first regional title for Madison since 1991, when coach Al Collins' club reached the super-sectional before losing in overtime. "I really thought we could do it a lot easier, but whenever we play Venice, they always play their best," Collins said. "They came here to win. They have only eight guys, but they played their hearts out."

"Our kids have no quit in them. We picked it up on defense and made a little drive, but we gave it up again. It was up and down. It's back to the chalkboard. We'll have a practice at noon (Saturday) and see if we can straighten things out." Maurice Baker led Madison with 18 points, including 11 in the second half. The 6-foot junior scored on a slam dunk after a steal and then added a 3-point play to make the score 59-49 with 4:03 left in the game. Venice got no closer than six points the rest of the way.

"That was a seven-point turnaround," said Red Devils coach Clinton Harris Jr., whose team lost 59-54 to the Trojans at Venice during the regular season. "Baker got the steal, went down and got the dunk and we made a couple turnovers.

"We couldn't fight back, but we did a hell of a job playing just six men all night. They had a bench and that's what got us. The same thing happened (in the first time), except it was a 10-point run."

"We started to get our heads down, but with four minutes left, we still could have come back. We missed three shots in a row and we were out of it after that."

Madison led by as many as six points early in the second quarter, but the Trojans' lead shrunk to one point (27-26) at halftime. Both teams shot poorly in the first half, hitting an identical 34 percent (11-of-32) from the field.

A basket by Kevin Roberts put Venice ahead 36-34 midway through the third quarter, but a rebound basket by Baker capped a 17-6 Venice run and gave the Trojans a 51-42 lead early in the fourth quarter. The Red Devils closed within six points (64-58) with 54 seconds to play, but Baker hit four straight free throws to clinch the win for Madison. (See TROJANS, Page 4B)

Tigers rally past Warriors

By Patrick C. Heston
Staff writer

East St. Louis Lincoln spoiled Senior Night for Granite City, rallying in the second half to defeat the Warriors 59-46 Friday night in the final regular season game for both teams.

Granite City opened strong, taking a quick 7-0 lead and forcing Tigers coach Bonnie Lewis to call a timeout less than two minutes into the game. The Warriors' lead was 20-12 after one quarter.

Ray Smith's 3-pointer just 13 seconds into the second quarter tipped the Warriors' margin to 11, 23-12. But Lincoln went on a 9-1 tear over the next 2:54 to pull within 24-21 halfway through the quarter. The Warriors maintained the edge, taking a 28-25 lead into the locker room.

The game turned in Lincoln's favor during the third quarter.

"We came up with a 1-3-1 in the second half to keep (the Warriors) from getting good looks on their threes," Lewis said. "It also helped us keep a man on Smith, who had hurt us the last time we played them and was hurting us in the first half tonight. We played it (See WARRIORS, Page 4B)

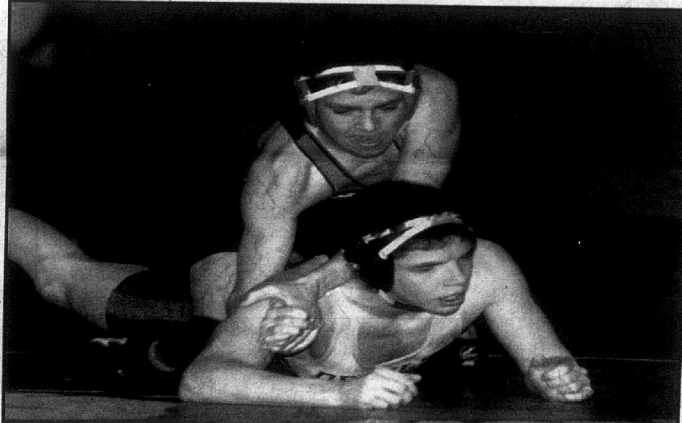

Wrestlers shoot for top-4 finish

For the fourth time in six years, the GCHS wrestling team advanced to the IHSA dual team state tournament. The Warriors met Aurora Waubondie Valley in an 11 a.m. quarterfinal match Saturday at Huff Gym in Champaign.

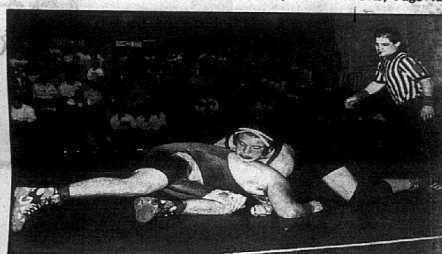

If the Warriors won Saturday morning, they were guaranteed a tournament trophy as one of the top four finishers in the state.

If GCHS finished first, second, third or fourth, a parade and reception will be held in its honor today.

The parade will start at the Air Pollution Center on East Chain of Rocks at 2:30 p.m. The Madison County Sheriff's Department and the Granite City Police Department will lead the parade, followed by the team bus and fans. It will conclude at the front lot of the main gymnasium at GCHS. A reception will be held in Memorial Gymnasium following the parade.

Venne lays foundation for future success

By Patrick C. Heston
Staff writer

Granite City High School wrestler Kevin Venne, who finished second in the 189-pound weight class at the Class AA individual state tournament at Champaign last weekend, is this week's Illinois Journal-Cardinal Club Athlete of the Week.

Venne, who finished with a 37-9 record, had 23 falls on the season to tie George Kirgan as the team leader in that department. He was also third on the squad in total points, behind only Jonas Janek and Gary Oxford.

But among seven Warriors who qualified for state, he was the only one to place in the state finals. Venne advanced to the championship before falling 19-3 to Brad Lynde of Rockton Hononegah.

"It was a thrill," Venne said. "I was disappointed I didn't win, but I am only a sophomore and I will have more chances. If I keep working hard and striving toward my goals, I can accomplish them." (See VENNE, Page 4B)

Red Devils edge Midgets, earn berth to finals

By Patrick C. Heston
Staff writer

The third time's the charm. It may be an ancient adage, but the Venice Red Devils found it very up-to-date Thursday night in the second semifinal game of the Wesclin Class A Regional.

Having lost twice to Freeburg during the regular season, Venice won the game that counted. The Devils claimed a berth in the regional finals against Madison with a pulsating 72-69 win that literally went down to the wire.

The first quarter was a succession of 7-2 runs. Freeburg opened a 7-2 lead, Venice tied things up at 9-9, and the Midgets were back in front 16-11 at the horn.

The lead grew to 21-11 at the 6:21 mark of the second quarter before the Devils' offense cranked it up. They hit their next six shot attempts, outscoring the Midgets 15-2 over the next 3:16, to take a 26-23 lead. A Josh Duffie 3-pointer drew Freeburg even with 2:22 to play. Freeburg was back in front, 30-29, at the half. Venice hit eight of 11 (73 percent) shots in the second quarter, including seven of eight inside the arc. But they were outshot, 57 percent to 50 percent, for the half. Most of the Midgets' success from the field came inside from the muscle and moves of 6-6 Adam Moddrell.

Moddrell hit five of six attempts in the first quarter, four of them layups, on his way to a 12-point half. Marcus Allen was trying unsuccessfully to guard him from behind.

"At halftime I told Marcus to front their big boy and we would give him some weak-side help," coach Clinton Harris said. "It made a big difference. Marcus did a good job of denying him the ball." (See REGIONAL, Page 3B)

Trojans roll past Althoff in semis • Regional

By Patrick C. Heston
Staff writer

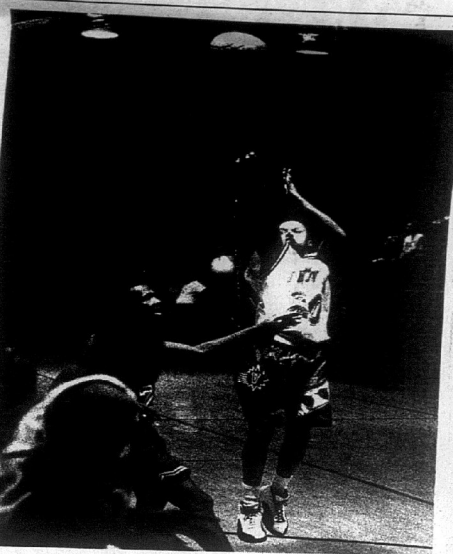

The talk in the stands before the Wesclin Class A Regional semifinal game between Madison and Althoff Thursday night was that the Crusaders would give the Trojans a close game. The talk was wrong. Madison reached the regional finals by routing Althoff 68-46 before a packed house. The talk was the presence in the stands of former Madison coach Larry Graham or former Trojans standout Mark Zahr that spurred on the boys of coach Al Collins. Then again, maybe it was that Madison is simply a very good, very well-coached squad taking dead-aim at the Class A state finals in Peoria. The Trojans trailed 3-2, but never again. Six straight points made it 8-3 and it only got worse from there. Althoff cut the lead to 8-7 with 3:03 left, but Madison scored the final eight points, six of them by Maurice Baker, for a 16-7 first-quarter cushion. Madison's tenacious half-court defense, which Collins calls "a match-up zone," frustrated the Crusaders all evening. Especially in the second quarter, when the Trojans put pressure on the Althoff 3-point shooters while shutting off the inside. All three Althoff field goals came on putbacks from offensive rebounds. Madison led 29-16 at the half and was in complete control of the game. "The second quarter was really the key to the game," Collins said. "Althoff is a quality team, but our defense shut them down very well. We knew we had to put pressure on them all game long. We had to step out and not let anybody come off the picks. We did it all evening, but we did it especially well in the second quarter." The Trojans started the third quarter ice cold from the field, missing their first eight shots. Alvin Valentine's tip-in at 5:30 was Madison's first score of the stanza. Althoff took advantage of the shooting slump to pull within 31-24. But Madison quickly started finding the mark again, using a 13-3 run to take a 44-27 lead with 2:14 remaining. The Trojans led 48-32 with a quarter to play. Madison led by as many as 27 points in the fourth quarter. (See SEMIS, Page 48) and we picked up several steals from our weak-side defense. "It was do or die," Harris said of the third quarter. "We knew we had to pick up our defense in the second half. Freeburg is a great shooting team, and they shot well tonight, but we picked up our defense in the second half. That's why we won the game." Kevin Roberts' 18-footer just 17 seconds into the third quarter edged Venice to the front 31-30. Moddrell countered from the lead once more. But Venice went on another run, this one an 18-8 advantage over the next 8:03 and held a 49-40 lead with 1:26 remaining. The Devils were up 53-45 after three quarters. Freeburg came out gunning in the final frame, scoring eight of the first 10 points to pull within 55-53. But the Devils opened it up to 63-55 and were still ahead 67-61 with only 53 seconds left. The Midgets went on a 5-1 mini-run in the next 24 seconds to pull within 68-66. Jammie Edwards netted two free throws with 23 seconds remaining, but Nick Bruss nailed a 3-pointer with 19 seconds on the clock and Freeburg was within one, 70-69. Kevin Roberts hit one of two free throws at the 0:11 mark to make it 71-69 Venice. Freeburg grabbed the missed free throw and flew down the floor. Bryan Blomenkamp launched a successful 3-pointer a split second after a referee's whistle gave Moddrell a requested timeout. The Midgets then inbounded the ball with six seconds remaining. Duffie penetrated just to the left of the free throw line and then tossed a pass toward the opposite corner. No teammate was there and the ball bounced into the stands with three seconds play. Fouled on the inbound play, Roberts hit his first free throw at the :02 mark, missing his second. But a desperate Freeburg shot was nowhere near the rim as the buzzer sounded. The Red Devils hit 10 of 13 free throws in the fourth quarter.

ter, and 13 of 18 for the game, to seal the win. Edwards led Venice with 19 points, Roberts added 17, Allen chipped in with 13, Laron Cole put in 10 and LaDwell Collins scored nine. Harris used only six players on the night. "We wanted the ball in Roberts' hands to shoot the free throws down the stretch," Harris said. "And we got what we wanted." Roberts was six of eight from the line in the quarter. The Midgets advanced to the semifinals with a 52-48 win over Wesclin in overtime. Venice edged Dupo 90-87 in the first round. With the win, the Devils (19-9) gained a rematch with rival Madison (21-6) in the regional final Friday. Madison edged host Venice 59-54 on Feb. 7.

light and it worked very well." Smith failed on all five 3-point attempts in the third quarter and the Warriors could manage only five field goals in 14 attempts. But while Granite City was turning cold, Lincoln was burning white-hot. The Tigers hit 10 of 14 field goals in the frame (71 percent), led by Kimon Green, who hit five of six. Lincoln outscored Granite City 20-10, including a 16-2 streak to close out the quarter, and took command 45-38.

Lincoln rode free throws through the fourth quarter while Granite City continued to misfire from the field. In all, the Warriors missed all 16 shots from beyond the arc in the second half and were four of 26 (15 percent) from 3-point range on the night.

"This was another game where it was up to us whether we won or lost," said Granite City coach John Van Buskirk. "And again we didn't do the things necessary to get us in the win column. Our ballhandling didn't beat us tonight. Our defense didn't beat us. What beat us tonight was our poor shooting. We had the shots, but they just didn't fall."

Smith was held to only nine points on three-of-18 shooting (two of 13 from 3-point range). Kyle Briggs, who hit two of three treys finished with six points. Jeff Hoenig gave away four inches to his defender but still worked his way inside for 13 points. Dusty Brewer led the Warriors with 16 points and hitting four of 10 field goals and all four free throws.

Briggs injured his left knee, the same knee he hurt earlier in the year, with 5:34 left in the second period. He left the game never to return.

"I'm not sure how Kyle is," Van Buskirk said. "But at this stage of the season we're not going to injure Kyle Briggs for a basketball win. He wasn't coming back in."

GCHS and Lincoln now prepare for regional action. The Warriors host Cahokia at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, while Lincoln entertains Civic Memorial at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Trojans

"He's always like that," Collins said of Baker. "He'll make the steal, he'll make the shot or he'll make the great pass to get an assist. He's an all-around player."

"He got in foul trouble and sat out most of the second quarter. We just kind of hung in there when he was out, but when he came back, he got everyone involved in the game."

Kevin Bradley and Alvin Valentine added 15 and 13 points, respectively, for the Trojans.

"I knew we were going to do it, we've got confidence," Baker said. "We played them a little better this time. We played straight-up defense and stopped their penetration."

"It does make it more special," Collins said of beating Venice in the regional final. "It's a great rivalry."

before setting for the 18-point win. "At this level of competition, you can't win without defense," Collins said. We set out this week to improve our defense and we did. We picked it up tonight. We kept the pressure on. That is the only way to beat anybody at this stage of the season."

As always, it was balanced scoring that carried the Trojans to victory. Kevin Bradley, who missed only one field goal during the night, paced Madison with a game-high 15 points. Maurice Baker, who controlled the game's tempo from start to finish, was right behind with 14 points, 10 of Senior Marcus Allen had a game-high 24 points for Venice, while freshman Laron Cole scored 15 points. The Red Devils finished the season at 19-10.

"(Allen) had a good year for us, but everyone played well," Harris said. "Another thing that killed us tonight was that Madison got two or three shots at the basket."

"We had a good season — I'm very happy with the way we played. Eight guys started with me this year and eight guys finished."

In other games Friday night, Columbia defeated Gibault 55-51 to win the Columbia Regional. The Eagles advance to play Trico in the Nashville Sectional on Wednesday.

Tickets for the Madison-Greenville sectional game will be on sale Tuesday at Madison.

them in the first half. Demond Simms and Valentine each scored nine, and Brandon McGirt and Clifford Burris contributed eight apiece.

Althoff was topped in scoring by JoVan Fishers' 13 points. Dan Albers put in 12 points and Jason Friederich scored 10. The Crusaders finished their season 10-17 after an 8-7 start.

Madison (21-6) moved on to the regional championship game Friday against Venice (19-9). The Trojans survived a close call at Venice almost a month ago. Friday night's winner advances to the Vandalia Sectional, where it will meet the winner of the Greenville Regional.

my expectations. I can win a state championship."

Championships seem to be in the Venne blood. Kevin's older brother John won the Class AA 160-pound state title just one year ago as a senior.

"John winning a state championship has been a positive thing for me," Kevin Venne said. "It has helped motivate me and helped me set high goals." Plus, he encourages me and pushes me along."

But coach Mike Garland is quick to remind the younger Venne not to stay in the shadow of his brother but to make his own name.

"I've told Kevin that the John Venne era is over," Garland said. "His job is now to start the Kevin Venne era."

"That is exactly what he is doing. And a second-place finish at state is not a bad place to begin."

Venne's love for and commitment to the sport of wrestling is contagious. His work ethic is admirable.

"Kevin works very hard," Garland said. "He lifts weights, he works hard in practice, and he sets a good example for the younger kids — those in junior high — who are constantly watching guys like Kevin."

Venne will wrestle regularly during the offseason. There are many trials and tournaments in the spring and summer which will put him on the mat against some of the top-flight wrestlers in the state and the nation. The experience will only increase his confidence for his junior campaign.

"If Kevin works hard and keeps lifting weights, he will accomplish his goals," Garland said. "If he chooses to be content with what he has done, he will still be one of the best wrestlers in the area, but he will not reach the levels he should have reached."

Venne has no intention of resting on his laurels. "I know I have to work very hard to accomplish what I want," he said. "And I will work hard."

"Kevin has been wrestling long enough that he has his fundamentals down," Garland said. "We have no desire to change anything he does. We want to add to it. He didn't lose at state because he wasn't good enough, but because he wasn't strong enough. He must lift weights and gain strength over the summer."

Venne's first focus, however, was on the dual team state finals Saturday at Champaign.

"We should place as a team as long as we wrestle as a team," he said. "If we wrestle as individuals, we will lose. If we wrestle as a team, we will win."
